

Pisces Eight of Wands

All aspects of your life, from love to family, work to creative projects, speed up under the influence of this Eight: delays are done with as decisions are made, words turn into actions, projects and travel plans fire up, and you find yourself fielding more calls, emails, socials, and meetings than ever before. This is an exciting, if bewildering time, when everything happens at once; you'll be in constant demand.

Advice: Take a breath before saying yes to all offers - choose carefully, and you won't waste energy or time running in circles.

Aries Knight of Wands

There's no more waiting around when this Knight arrives, as every aspect of your life receives a sudden energy-boost: expect a deluge of opportunities. You can now make progress professionally, at home, and in relationships. Personal projects benefit from this dynamic influence, too. An additional meaning of the card is travel, and moving house - you'll find you are now able to move quickly.

Advice: Choose which people, situations, or projects will benefit most from your efforts and attention. Stay grounded, and you'll make great steps towards success.

Taurus The Star

March is a month where you will feel more inclined to think positively; this is a time to do so specifically. What are the changes that you would like to make or see in your life? Make a list. You can accomplish nearly anything that you set out to do now. Think big.

Advice: Follow your heart, and respect your inner knowing. Trust that the universe will bring you whatever you need.

Gemini Ten of Wands

You have far too much to do and to think about; there may be pressure at work or on the home front. You're so absorbed in the detail you can't see the bigger picture and discern what's essential. An additional meaning is that one person or situation is taking all your mental energy, so you have little time to focus on your own needs.

Advice: Set some boundaries to reduce the stress. You may need to say no to certain people.

Cancer Page of Swords

March is a month of joy and happiness as spring starts to arrive, but you may feel that you are surrounded by conflict. Try to focus on the positive and don't be bullied by anyone. Stand your ground and everything will work out for the better. You may feel a little distant in love but happiness is just around the corner.

Advice: Follow your intuition to make the best decisions in relationships, work, and projects.

Leo Knight of Swords The action-driven Knight in the troublesome suit of Swords brings a whirlwind of drama – confrontations, unexpected blocks, and disruptions to plans and, in a relationship, insecurity and arguments. You have a fight on your hands, and there's little you can do to avoid the upheaval it brings. On the plus side, you'll know exactly what and whom you are dealing with.

Advice: Avoid being drawn into drama more than is necessary. Try not to take this setback personally; it's their fight, not yours.

Virgo Ace of Swords

This card calls on us to not be afraid to make a leap if it's in our best interests. In short, bravery is called for. As the old adage says, "feel the fear and do it anyway." You have a good idea already of what must be done. The hard part is the doing of it. Start today.

Advice: Use your intelligence and victory is yours.

Libra Two of Swords

March will be a month where you are at a crossroads, and there is a decision to be made. The two sharks signify tension and indecision; locked in conflict, neither can win, as their power appears to be equal. This situation may, or may not be of your own making; your perspective is blocked, or there's an obvious clue that you are not seeing.

Advice: Look again; take a fresh angle. Any action or decision is better than none. This is a great opportunity for a breakthrough in your thinking.

Scorpio Four of Wands

When you've achieved a goal - such as finding a new home, completing a project, or passing a test - it's time for rewards. Holidays, socializing, love, and trips away all feature in this happy Four, which brings you leisure, fun, and freedom. It's also time to get back in touch with your inner child, and celebrate the joy of life. As you find contentment within, you'll also sense the closeness of your spirit guides. An additional meaning is reflecting on happy memories.

Advice: Be carefree while you can, and replenish your mind, body, and soul - you deserve it.

Sagittarius Nine of Pentacles

Now is the time to treat yourself to some leisure and luxury – furnishing your home, tending your garden, indulging in your favourite pursuit, or otherwise spending on yourself – as you'll be feeling rich in time and money. You will love your home, so you may redecorate, re-arrange, bake, and invite others to share your relaxed, comfortable space.

Advice: Devote time and money to your interests and your home. You can be the centre of your world, and appreciate all the good things in life just now.

Capricorn King of Pentacles

This King reveals a man who is ambitious, trustworthy and protective. When he commits to a project or relationship, he is loyal to the last. He can be a powerful business owner or leader; he has a hands-on attitude. As the 'you' card in a reading, he represents generosity and love; what you gain, you share with the people who are important to you.

Advice: Protect what is yours, while helping those on their way up the ladder. Enjoy the rewards that success brings.

Aquarius Ace of Swords

March reveals you benefit from a smart decision that leads to immediate victory. If you've been beset by uncertainty or delays to your plans, this Ace shows a breakthrough as you cut through confusion to win power and success; in relationships, you make a positive new beginning. The card is also a sign of mental clarity, so you are sharp-witted; there may also be a legal victory, or a triumph in an argument or debate.

Advice: Use your intelligence and victory is yours.
